School Musical, Harry Potter and the Portal to Narnia Tickets

This is an important reminder that tickets to our school musical for the evening performances always sell out.

Due to government safety regulations we are limited in the number of people we can have in our hall.

If you wish to see your child's performance please get in early for your tickets.

Tickets are sold at the front office.

Canteen Closure

Next week, Wednesday, November 7, the Canteen will be closed for their usual business. However, there will be a Pizza Day on this day instead. See page 3 for details. An order form has been sent home.

Calendar Fundraiser

All students will be completing an artwork which will be featured in a calendar, which is available for purchase. Cost is $14.

These calendars will be a great Christmas gift and will be available before the end of the year.

All orders are to be at the office by Friday, November 9. No late orders will be taken.

A calendar sample is available for viewing in the Office.

Head Lice

As the warmer weather approaches schools have problems with head lice. Please check your children and treat them where necessary.

Please be reminded that eggs need to be removed as well as hair treated.

Hawkesbury Music Festival

Congratulations to all our students who performed at the Hawkesbury Music Festival last week. Our performances and our contribution to the massed choir were brilliant.

No Animals on School Grounds

Please be advised NO animals are permitted on school grounds without prior authorisation by myself. No exceptions!

The flowers are pretty and I love my garden and I love my flowers.

Lucy

When we went back to the forest there were people putting trash every where on the ground and I was sad. I was never allowed in the forest area. I was sad and we never came back.

Emalia

Eden

I think old Tom was right to trick Belinda because he needed to milk her. old Tom needed to milk her so he can make butter.
